

TWIN COUNTIES DISASTER RECOVERY GROUP

NEED HELP?

•
WE ARE HERE

How Do I Get Help?

*If you are a Hurricane Matthew Survivor

Mission

The Twin Counties Disaster Recovery Group (TCDRG) is a collaboration of representatives from non-profit organizations, faith-based and community-based groups, private sector, and governmental agencies that work together to share information and resources that can help address the needs of individuals and families affected by disasters in Edgecombe and Nash Counties of North Carolina. The Group's mission is to assist in identifying unmet needs of those affected by disaster and to coordinate access to resources that could provide relief.

How Do I Get Involved?

Contact:
Kimberly Hickerson
Disaster Response Coordinator
252-883-6389
twincountiesdrg@gmail.com

- Get a Case Manager by calling 1-919-861-2886
- Lutheran Services will provide a Case Manager to assess and refer you to us according to your unmet needs.
- Survivor cases are reviewed confidentially to ensure all regular resources have been used first.
- Survivor Cases are referred to the Unmet Needs Committee without identifying information.
- The Unmet Needs Committee determines if we have resources to meet the need.
- TCDRG will notify your Case Manager of the outcome.
- The Case Manager will notify you.

